In accordance to Mexican immigration laws and regulations, a Mexican visa allows a foreign national to arrive at a port of entry and/or migration checkpoint, and request entry into Mexico. Be advised that holding/ presenting a visa does not guarantee that entry into Mexican territory will be granted. At the point of entry, Mexico's immigration officers are the only authority that can accept or refuse the entry of any traveler into Mexico, regardless of whether the traveler has previously attained a visa or is exempt from obtaining one.
